and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

While visiting with School Superintendent Cook the other day we were discussing the gap in our present school system in light of the present and future needs of our young people. At the present time there is no help offered to the graduates of our high schools who are not college material. What seems to be needed is some form of technical or trade school of either two or four years duration.

The need for such a school becomes obvious when one considers that the federal government is considering spending $435,000,000 to retrain workers whose skills are no longer needed, while at the same time, we are turning out thousands of kids each year without any skills at all.

Even if funds were made available for every high school graduate to attend college, it would not solve this new pressing problem, that will grow more pressing every year as our technical progress grows, because at least half of the high school graduates could not make the grade in college if there was room in our colleges for them.

The need for technical schools is born out by looking at the help wanted columns in the bigger city papers under trades. This past Sunday's Dallas Morning News listed 64 separate ads for help under trades while unemployment is a major problem of our nation.

With the increased needs of our world today, our high schools have become, in effect, what our junior highs were a few years ago. It used to be that a man who just finished the eighth or ninth grade didn't stand much of a chance of getting ahead in any job if he couldn't get one. While a high school graduate was not looked down upon too much in job hunting. But unfortunately, all of this has changed and now a high school diploma is not enough.

While we bring this problem closer to home we find that the young people who graduate from Hamlin who are not qualified to attend college have no skills to offer prospective employers. Years ago many of them worked on the farms and in the oil fields but now there are very few jobs available on the farms and the oil companies want trained help.

I don't pretend to be smart enough to know how a town such as ours could promote a technical school on the Junior College level to serve this six or seven county area but I can think of no greater boom to the local economy than such a school as this could be.

Not only would this offer our young people the training that we owe them but it would be a major drawing card for industry. Since training help is the most expensive operation for any industry, they are constantly looking for an area with a trained labor force. We have always heard that water was the answer in bringing industry to this area but I don't believe that the facts will bear this out.

The lack of water will keep a town from growing but it will in itself not bring industry.

MARCH 31 IS FINAL DAY FOR SIGNING IN GRAIN PROGRAM

College Station — Corn and grain sorghum producers must decide soon whether or not they will participate in the 1962 Feed Grain program, reminds C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. March 31 is the deadline date for declaring intent to comply and notice must be given in writing to the County ASCS before that date.

Bates points out that non-cooperators may plant all the corn or grain sorghum acreage they wish and the grain produced may be either fed or marketed. If it is sold it will bring only the market price since no government support price can be obtained. They can get support prices for oats, however, if this grain is placed under loan.

Growers who do comply must divert at least 20 percent of their feed grain base into conservation use. For this land they will receive payment equal to 50 percent of normal production. In addition, as co-operators they will be eligible for price supports on the normal production from reduced acreage.

Producers who need assistance in figuring the possible effects of the program on their net farm income should see their county agent, says Bates. County agents have copies of budget forms which can be used to figure alternatives and how the decisions may affect net profit from grain.

Other factors may also influence decisions in some areas of the state. These include soil moisture conditions at planting time, availability of acreage of other cash crops, amount of production capital available, need for home produced grain in conducting the livestock portion of the business and the outlook for grain prices in the months ahead.

If further information is needed, contact the office manager of your County ASCS., and notify the office of your decision before the deadline, advises Bates.

AREA RESIDENT, JOSE SANTIAGO, CELEBRATES 103 BIRTHDAY

Jose Santiago, a resident of Jones County for 34 years, observed his 103 birthday Monday, March 19. He and his wife live at 410 Webb Street in Stamford. He received a birthday greeting from Victor Christgau, Director of the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance (Social Security) which was delivered by Mrs. Faye Ford, Social Security field representative from Abilene who services Jones County.

Mrs. Ford interviewed Santiago through an interpreter, the Rev. Sam Hill, pastor of the Jerusalem Baptist Mission in Stamford. The centurian speaks no English.

Jose, the youngest of 12 children was born March 19, 1859, at San Miguel, Mexico. His parents died when he was young and he was reared by relatives. All of his known relatives are now deceased.

Jose, who served four years in the Mexican Army fighting Pancho Villa, is still active and alert. He tends a small vegetable garden, takes care of his own yard, carries water for household use, and makes minor repairs to his house. He walks to and from town daily. He and his wife founded the Jerusalem Baptist Mission of Stamford, Texas, and are still active members attending the church regularly. He accompanies the minister to neighboring communities for church services.

After coming to the United States 53 years ago, he worked as a farm laborer picking cotton and clearing land. He was able to do seasonal work as a cotton picker until about six years ago.

Santiago met his wife in a cotton field near Ft. Stockton, Texas, and they were married in 1920. Their only child, Francisco, was killed in an automobile accident in 1947. Until his death, the son was the principal support of the parents. Francisco attended a rural school in Haskell County and served in the armed forces during World War II.

Jose and his wife were able to qualify as dependent parents for social security benefits based on Francisco's military service and short-time jobs under the program. Santiago is one of 15 persons in Texas who are 100 or over receiving payments under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance provisions of the Social Security Act. The two parents receive $112.60 monthly from social security and these benefits are their sole means of support. Since all social security records are confidential, it was necessary that Mr. and Mrs. Santiago consent to having this information published.

Santiago is descendant of a Spanish-Indian tribe in Mexico. He initially spoke the To-mite language which is similar to Spanish. He learned to speak Spanish when he served in the Mexican army.

Jose attributes his long life to abstinence from tobacco and alcoholic beverages. He also does not eat an evening meal and has not done so for many years.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—Capital newspapermen quizzed candidates for lieutenant governor at a Sigma Delta Chi dinner and found wide variety in the answers. At a prior meeting the professional journalism society had quizzed the gubernatorial candidates.

Big news of the session was the unanimous opposition to legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse races. Texas voters will have an opportunity to express their own views on this subject at the May 5 primaries.

Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio got this issue listed on both the Democratic and Republican primary ballots by presenting both political party headquarters with petitions signed by more than 200,000 persons. Petition asked the legislature to give the people an opportunity to vote on pari-mutuel betting.

Further questions to the candidates at the newsmen's dinner revealed diverse opinions on repeal of the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting. Four favored repeal; two opposed it. Senator Preston Smith and Bill Hayes were the opponents.

Candidates present at the meeting were Senators Preston Smith, Jarrard Secrest, Crawford Martin and Robert Baker, all democrats, and Bill Hayes and Kellis Bibrell, republicans. Speaker James A. Turman, the seventh candidate was absent.

Former Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey moderated the discussion. He closed the session with a comment that most people underestimate the importance of the job of lieutenant governor. Because all state policy is made by the Legislature, the lieutenant governor is of prime importance. He presides over the Senate, names the Senate committees, and decides which committees will handle bills. Thus he has almost absolute control over the course of legislation—which is state policy-making.

POLL LISTS HIGH — It seems like there's a record number of candidates running for state and national office this year. There also appears to be a record number of potential voters.

A recent count showed 2,373,857 Texans paid poll taxes or filed for exemptions this year. That's 218,212 more eligible voters than last year.

With 15 county totals still due at the State Comptroller's office, including some big cities, the list may exceed the record-setting 2,594,254 who paid to go to the polls in the 1960 presidential election.

All poll-tax payers who show up at the May 5 primaries will answer the big question: Do they want to keep the poll tax as a voting requirement?

Their answers on primary tickets of both parties should be a representative decision on the long-battled subject.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES—Angelina County Attorney Dan Brazil asked Attorney General Will Wilson whether a precinct chairman who is elected in a May primary can take office immediately.

He was told that even though a man becomes precinct chairman without a run-off, he must wait until the Saturday after his county run-off election before he assumes his new duties.

Attorney general also ruled that the "banking escheat" law calls for bankers to advertise for missing depositors in May of this year.

He also interpreted the criminal code to read that a justice of the peace cannot collect a $4 trial fee if the case at hand is dismissed.

EGG STANDARDS UPGRADED—Benefits of the crackdown on egg grade violations in 1958 were reaped by Texas housewives. Number of below-quality or inedible eggs reported for the last quarter of 1961 was only 12 percent.

Agriculture Commissioner John White said this incidence is "the lowest in history for Texas and probably as low a level as ever attained by any state."

When the Egg Law became effective in 1958, violators were uncovered at the rate of 16 per cent. State Department of Agriculture spent $39,902 in fiscal 1961 to see that the law was enforced.

At a meeting of the Texas Egg Advisory board, White commended the state's egg industry for its cooperation in the egg "clean-up."

Board includes G. F. Siebel of Burton; Marvin Gilbreath of Weimar; Jack Dubose of Gonzales; T. D. Craddock of Hamilton; Tom Boothe of San Antonio; D. W. Reneau of Seguin and F. Z. Beanblossom of Texas A & M.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER TAKES A LOOK AT EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM AND THEN BACKS OFF IN FRIGHT

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his grass farm on Route 1 looks at education this week, but not for long. Dear editor:

I'll admit before I get started that some people will say a farmer hasn't got any business trying to solve the educational problem when he can't even solve the agricultural problem, but actually the very time to switch to some other problem is when you can't handle your own.

I read in a newspaper last night that educators have been looking closely at the educational system in this country and in a meeting in Chicago the other day an expert from the U. S. Office of Education said the traditional 12 years of public education should be increased to 14.

He said the reason is that 12 years is not long enough to prepare a boy or girl for modern life, even if they're going on to college.

"The present 12-year program of elementary and secondary education is not strong enough for an era in which the body of man's knowledge doubles every 15 years," he explained.

I have been thinking this over and have come to the conclusion that this expert is wrong. The way I figure it, if the body of man's knowledge doubles every 15 years, a 14-year school period is far too short. If a boy learned everything there was to know in 14 years, the year after he graduated he'd still have it to do all over again, as the body of knowledge would have doubled by then. Even if he stayed in school all his life and made 100 on every subject on every report card, he couldn't keep up and would die a comparatively ignorant man.

What's in it for ME?

"I'm not a member of an electric cooperative. I don't use their electricity. They don't serve my town. What do they mean to me?"

They mean a great deal to you my friend. Their member-owners buy one billion dollars worth of appliances every year from home town merchants like yourself. The nation's rural electric systems provide a broader industrial base for national security. They provide jobs in rural areas. They create a healthier, happier community. They make farming, ranching, dairying and other rural pursuits more efficient. In short the nation's rural electric are good for everybody.

... always on the move toward a better way.

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in Automotive Market Reports show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

why?

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

1. A greater demand for the product

2. A more desirable product for resale

So if used Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative wholesale publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep working and working and working and working!

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

WHO WOULDN'T BE SICK AND TIRED!

Dear Amy:

I have been married for nine years. It is the second marriage for both of us.

Two years after we were married my husband became seriously ill. I went to work as a waitress to help with the finances and have been working ever since.

My husband recovered enough to go back to work but he never did. His doctor says he should get a job to give him something to do or else he will die (from boredom). He is so used to me working that he has become very lazy and every time I suggest that he get something to do he puts on a real act about how sick he is.

I'm so tired of working all hours of the day and night, I don't know what it is to sit down and relax anymore.

Is there anyway you know of to get him off 'this you know what' because I can't take it much longer.

P. S. He smokes a box of cigars and drinks a fifth of liquor a week.

Sick and Tired

Dear Tired:
A man that is physically capable of working and chooses to loaf doesn't deserve a wife, much less one that keeps him in cigars and liquor. Cut out his luxuries and stop treating him in the manner to which he has become accustomed. If he doesn't like it he might get off of 'this you know what' and try to earn a dollar like any decent man would.

Dear Amy:

Last year a neighbor had a very attractive nephew visiting her for the summer. We were very friendly and had some nice dates and I thought he really liked me, but after he left, he didn't even write. Now he's coming back for a few months and I'd like to know how to act towards him?

Beth

Dear Beth:
Greet him warmly and pleasantly. Then let him take over. If he asks for a date—accept—but don't give up your year-round pals.

Summer interludes are fragile things on which to try to build a permanent romance.

Dear Amy:

What do you do about a constant borrower? I have a neighbor that is at my door every day of the week to borrow something or other. She usually returns what she borrows when she gets around to it, but that's not the idea.

She is getting on my nerves. Last week she had the nerve to borrow five dollars and this time I haven't seen her since. Shall I go to her house and ask for my money back or chalk it up to experience?

Angry

Dear Angry:

The class yell of the school of experience is "OUCH." If you lend a neighbor like yours five dollars and you never see her again it's worth it!

Dear Amy:

I share my apartment with a woman who is very inquisitive about my affairs—mail, visitors, telephone calls, etc. Recently a man called to see me on confidential business. For the sake of privacy, I spoke to him in the hall and was later criticized for it. Under the circumstances what else could I do?

L. L. G.

Dear L. L. G.:

Nosy people must be treated with rudeness. They know no other language. Your friends, business or social, should be welcome in your home, even though it entails telling your room-mate to exit. If she doesn't like it, find yourself a more congenial person to share your apartment.

Dear Amy:

I am involved in a very delicate situation and maybe you can help me out. I am engaged to a sweet fellow and we have set the date. I thought I loved him until I started dating his best friend. Now I don't know. How can I be sure before I take the big step?

In Love?

Dear In Love:

Your code of conduct leaves much to be desired. If you find pleasure in the company of a man other than your 'sweet fellow' you're not ready for the 'big step'—at least not with him.

Preston Smith Called 'Man With A Plan' by Friends

A "man with a plan" for Texas is how friends of Senator Preston Smith describe the Lubbock businessman.

Senator Smith has been working for Texas for many years as a public servant.

The veteran legislator has served six years in the Texas House of Representatives and is in his sixth year as a State Senator.

He now seeks his highest goal, that of Lieutenant Governor of Texas, his native state.

The veteran West Texas lawmaker campaigned for the office of lieutenant governor in 1950. He placed third in a field of 12 candidates and led the ticket in 68 counties.

This "man with a plan" has drafted a program of progress as the platform for his campaign for Texas' second highest office.

His plan calls for simplification of the general sales tax;

TELEPHONE TALK

by Roy Eury, Manager

ABOUT YOUR TELEPHONE BILL

We know how important it is to you that the bill you receive from us for your telephone service each month is correct. And we try very hard to see that it is always right.

Most calls are billed with the help of marvelous new electronic machines. These machines help us to hold down our cost of billing—which means holding down the price you pay for telephone service. It would be almost impossible to do the whole billing job by hand.

Though our electronic machines are almost miraculous in their speed and accuracy, it is still possible, once in a while, for something to go wrong. For that reason we have dependable telephone checking and double-checking the bills at every key point in the process.

In the telephone business, we combine machines and people for the utmost accuracy in your telephone bill. Like any other part of your telephone service we are always looking for new ways to improve it while holding down the price you pay.

TELEPHONE MONTH
March is a most significant month for telephone people. It marks the anniversary of two important dates in telephone history.

On March 3, 1847, Alexander Graham Bell was born in Edinburgh, Scotland. Twenty-nine years later, on March 10, 1876, in Boston, he made the first telephone work. After its invention, it took just a few years for the telephone to travel as far as Texas. Our first telephone exchange was opened in Galveston in August, 1879.

Since that time, telephone service has grown, until today there are more than 75 million telephones in the United States. They carry more than 290 million telephone calls each day.

On this 86th anniversary of the invention of the telephone, our goal is the same as it was on March 10, 1876 . . . to make your telephone service more valuable, more dependable and more useful to you every day.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Rep. Wheatley To Attend Tax Policy Meeting

Rep. J. C. (Carl) Wheatley has been requested to attend a meeting of the Texas Commission on State and Local Tax Policy in Dallas on Friday March 30th.

House Concurrent Resolution 5, 57th Legislature, 3rd. called session, directs this commission to make a "comprehensive study of proposed or prospective changes" in the Texas Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax.

Rep. Wheatley encourages the assistance of the people of the 83rd Legislative District which is composed of Jones, Haskell, Knox, Baylor and Throckmorton Counties to submit to him proposals to correct the inequities of the Sales Tax in as much detail as possible.

Even though Rep. Wheatley voted against this sales tax, since it was enacted and is now the law, he believes that all possible efforts should be made to correct the inequities that have become evident since the law went into effect.

correcting the auto insurance merit plan; economical government without waste; correction of the inequities in Texas' women's rights; better schools; safe, efficient highways and farm-to-markets roads; vigorous water and soil conservation projects; providing hunters and fishermen with an improved game and fish program; and better recreational facilities for our parks and lakes.

He is for small loan regulation and adequate care of the aged, the needy and the blind.

Robert Baker Giving $5 Texas Banknotes

Facsimile $5 Republic of Texas banknotes, printed on parchment so crinkly and genuine looking that Sam Houston would have accepted it at face value without a second glance, made their appearance throughout the state this week as part of Senator Robert Baker's race for Lieutenant Governor.

On the reverse side of the bank-notes is printed, in appropriate formal language, the bearer's certificate of membership in the "Be for Baker Club," declaring that this is "the currency of good and progressive government in the State of Texas."

An announcement from Baker's Dallas headquarters said 100,000 of the unique bank-notes will be distributed during the next six weeks, being offered to Baker supporters through county campaign headquarters and chairmen throughout Texas.

Baker confidently predicted that he would be in the run-off election with "the candidate who has already committed himself to a state-wide special interest group," and that he would win the run-off because he has made no commitments to any group or organization and will be free to serve the voters to the best of his ability and his 10-years' experience in the Legislature.

In 1960, 56% of the persons covered by social security earned over $3,600.00

MECHANICAL IMPROVEMENTS HELPING COTTON YIELDS

College Station — The past year wasn't what cotton growers in many Texas counties would classify as a good one, but for the state as a whole, lint yields were the second highest on record, 348 pounds an acre. Thus, low yields in some areas were offset by record yields in others.

Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, in his 1961 annual report highlights some of the past year's achievements. He said the 7-Step Cotton Committees, working on all levels, continued to be a major factor in the progress made by the producers of the state's most important crop. Since the program, initiated 16 years ago by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has been operating, lint yields have climbed from 134 pounds an acre to 1961's 348 pounds. But perhaps of equal or even more importance have been the changes in production and harvesting, ginning and soil management practices.

The specialist reported that an estimated $68 million plus was saved last year in harvest costs through the use of machines—33,089 stripper harvesters and 4,782 spindle pickers. Harvesting machinery doesn't come cheap, the specialist said, as verified by the expenditure of over $32 million in 1961 alone for new picking and stripping machines.

Growers saved another $27.7 million in labor costs through the use of 50,605 rotary hoe equipped tractors and chemicals for weed and grass control. Spot-oiling of Johnsongrass was used on approximately a quarter million acres of cotton in 163 counties and spot-spraying of the same pest with water carried chemicals was used on 136,700 acres. Lateral oiling saved up to $25 an acre on hoe bills and was used on more than 86,000 acres in 75 counties.

Defoliant or desiccants were used on 61,555 farms in 170 counties to prepare cotton for machine harvesting. The use of moisture meters, a recent introduction, expanded rapidly and 136 were used in 41 counties as an aid in quality improvement.

Last year, county agents in 207 counties assisted producers with all phases of the 7-Step Program. County program building committees were also active in planning county work and emphasis in many counties was placed on the use of cotton burs for soil improvement and to reduce fire hazards. Burs were spread on 17,306 farms in 126 counties. A few years ago burs were commonly burned as waste. A ton of burs contains about $7.50 worth of plant nutrients and their application has raised lint yields by as much as 25 percent.

Other comparable achievements have been made with poultry, dairy cattle, and other animals.

Nuclear research—a product of the Atomic Age—is part of the newest age. Radiation is now being studied as a means of preserving food when being transported from farm to consumer. Already the government has an atomic farm where radiation is quickly altering varieties of plants otherwise a process that would have taken thousands of years.

Such agricultural progress as this has fused older careers into a new one—Agribusiness. Presently as products travel from farm to consumers, all careers participate—the transportation specialist, the marketing specialist and the packaging specialist. Such participation insures the consumer of a more economical and a better qualified product.

CROP ROTATION STILL RATED AS BEST CONTROL OF DISEASE

College Station—Methods of disease control in crops have been getting fancier and fancier in recent years, but the practice of crop rotation is still one of the most effective, says Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist.

Continuous cropping of the same field with the same or closely related crops year after year will result in increased plant disease troubles, Smith points out. A disease of only slight importance the first year may carry over in the soil and become more serious each succeeding year.

Many disease organisms, such as those causing downy mildew, wheat rust and tomato or potato late blight, are wind-borne. Others are carried on or in the seed. All of these diseases may occur on new land. After a disease organism is introduced into a new field it may linger until the infection finally reaches serious proportions. Corn smut is a good example of a fungus that is carried to a new field by wind-borne spores, and then survives in the soil for several seasons.

Newly cleared woodland or recently plowed grassland is usually as free of soil-inhabiting plant disease organisms as any land that can be found. Smith says farmers and ranchers should make every effort to keep such soil disease-free.

A plant disease already established in a field often can be avoided by planting a crop that is not susceptible to that disease, Smith advises. Farmers should learn to recognize diseases, and, when they occur, should plant a different resistant crop for several seasons. Some disease organisms may live in the soil for years, even when a susceptible crop is not grown. Others can be controlled after the land is planted to non-susceptible crops for only a few seasons.

Blossoming Forth

Around almost any home you will find flowers that someone planted, watered, and with tender care, helped bring forth into a thing of beauty. People are very much like flowers, and it is wonderful to see a child walking in the path of the Lord, being trained and taught the ways of the Lord. Then one day you realize the fruits of your labor as they blossom forth and show their appreciation and love for God. Bring your children to church where others can help you in this labor of love.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Members of the Fairview Baptist church met last Wednesday night for a business meeting. The group agreed unanimously to call Darrell Lewis of Abilene for their pastor. Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford, Woodrow Goodwin and Winslow Gray went to Abilene to talk to Rev. Lewis. On Sunday he came to fill the pulpit and accepted the call as pastor.

The Rev. Lewis has been preaching for some time but has never pastored a church or been ordained. Plans are now being made for an ordination service as soon as it can be arranged.

The church, which has been active since its establishment in 1888, is pleased to be able to give young beginning preachers a chance for experience so that they can go forward to larger churches when the opportunity arises.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hatch, Stevie and Greg, of Shamrock, were visitors in the Elmer Joiner home Tuesday morning. Mrs. Hatch is a niece of Mrs. Joiner and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin. The Goodwins and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCoy were also visiting with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Gray went last Friday and helped his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray move from Merkel to Anson.

Mrs. Henry Kee of Lubbock, returned home Sunday afternoon, after spending the week with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner, and visiting with several old friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. David (Tuffy) Ford and baby, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.

Mrs. Flavil Holmes' brother, Elby Best of Borger, visited with them Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda, ate supper with the Elmer Joiners on Monday night. Other visitors were Mrs. J. E. McCoy, Kay and Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newland have received news of a new grandson born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fininis, the former Billy Katherine Newland. They live in the Houston area. Mrs. Newland will go as soon as she recovers from a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Gray visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herman White and family, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Derrell Lewis, Kathy, Derrell J. and Ricky, ate lunch with the H. L. Ford family Sunday.

Friday night the chairmen of the Church Achievement program have been asked to meet at the home of the General Chairman, Woodrow Goodwin, for a meeting to plan the program of work for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Abilene Saturday and spent the night with their son Rex Jones and family.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin was ill Sunday morning and absent from church. She is suffering from an attack of pleurisy as a result of a cold.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

MARCH 22, 1962

We were sorry to learn last Monday morning that Mrs. Doyle Combs and all of the children were ill with colds and bronchitis. It was rather discouraging for them to get sick so soon after moving to a new church, but we hope they soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kiser of Plains visited with her mother, Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Bond, Marshall and Diane.

In Detroit, a police patrol car was rammed from the rear by a driver who apologized for not noticing it. His explanation "I was looking in my rear-view mirror to see if a patrol car was chasing me!"

Social Security checks to children of deceased parents averaged $52.00 in September, 1961.
